Cecil L. Martin
Class of 1967

OBITUARY

Cecil L. Martin, 61 years of age, of West Toledo, passed away unexpectedly Wednesday evening, May 30, 2007, at St. Anne's Hospital.

Cecil was born Nov. 25, 1945, to Robert and Ruth Martin.

He graduated from Richwood High School in Richwood, in 1963, and attended Ohio University obtaining a Bachelor of Science degree in education in 1967 and his masters in education in 1975.

Cecil began his career in education at the Washington Local school district as principal, later becoming the director of curriculum. He retired in 1999 but went back to serve as principal at McGregor Elementary for two years. He thoroughly enjoyed his retirement and was an avid collector focusing on coins, case knives and comic books. He loved spending time with his grandchildren, woodworking and playing golf with his buddies.

He is survived by his loving wife of 38 years, Linda; and daughters Janette (Dustin) Warren and Jennifer (Chris) Alford. The grandchildren are Mackenzie and Madison Warren. Also surviving are his mother, Ruth Martin Anderson; sister Lois (Dave) Lucas; and brother Calvin (Rosy) Martin. He was preceded in death by his father, Robert; and his brother, Carl Martin.
