George R. Muenick was in Summit County Jail yesterday on a charge of aggravated murder in the death of Stow executive Jeffrey K. Brown.

Muenick was arrested Nov. 30 by Denver police. He appeared in Summit County Common Pleas Court yesterday, and the court appointed two lawyers to represent him. Arraignment was scheduled for Tuesday.

Muenick's last known address was in Goshen, Ind., detectives said.

Brown's body was found Nov. 16 in a field in Green Township. He had been stabbed 18 times and his wallet and identification were missing.

Police said the knife used to kill Brown has been recovered. Brown was manager of product engineering at Air Enterprises Inc. in Akron.
